

All your human capital needs, handled.

Zempleo is a forward-thinking, certified minority-owned business (MBE) with large scale experience to manage payroll and staffing projects of any size.

We never forget that everything we do impacts other people's lives. Whether it's reducing the burden on a HR team, lowering an organization's exposure to liability, or connecting the ideal candidate with the perfect position for career advancement, we provide thoughtful, attentive service for every solution we offer.

Because we are a Minority Business Enterprise (MBE), partnering with Zempleo fulfills your diversity spend requirements - without compromising quality, attention or flexibility. Our decades of experience providing expert human capital solutions and our position in the Evergent Group result in our ability to support the needs of large corporations in ways that few other MBEs can.

Payroll Service

Trust a payroll service provider that takes your business personally. We manage complete payroll services for organizations of every size.

Staffing

Rely on our staffing experts to find the ideal candidate to fill your temporary, contract to hire or executive level position.

IC Compliance

Reduce the risk of independent contractor misclassification and lower your exposure to costly liability.
